you might consider adding short slice of life type videos between your main videos this helps your audience know and understand you better alternatively you might make vlogs alongside your more niche specific ones tiktok coins can only be purchased directly from within the app the price usually sits around 100 coins for 1 but it does fluctuate as tiktok adjusts the prices for inflation and maximum profitability diamonds are a virtual currency that is only used by streamers on tiktok its sole purpose is to store value before a streamer cashes out diamonds can't be used for anything else and can't be sent to other users don't forget to interact with your viewers make sure that you reply to comments that people leave on your videos it may seem like hard work to you but it makes your followers believe you care and take notice of them unlike youtube tiktok users don't get to share in the advertising revenue on the platform so you have to find other ways to earn money on tiktok this makes the amount you can make more variable on tiktok however once you make a name for yourself the money you earn on tiktok can be very lucrative according to our tiktok influencer engagement and earnings calculator charli d'amelio potentially earns 56 000 94 000 per post participating in tiktok challenges is a bit like receiving a gift if your tiktok videos are funny enough someone might send you coins as a tip challenges come through on a somewhat routine basis typically the latest trend that's front and center on tiktok a few of these in the past include the ill fated milk crate stacking challenge and the cinnamon powder challenge unlike with youtube where you sell space on your videos and channel page for advertising at a rate decided by google tiktok does not yet compensate most of its users for running ads on their posted photos as such tiktok influencers and brands don't have an intermediary or any set rates if they choose to work together brands make deals with influencers and prices can vary markedly depending on the circumstances however one thing is consistent in nearly all cases influencers get paid more if they have both a high engagement rate as well as a high number of followers brands have learned that you can easily buy followers who are of no practical value to anybody hence they are far more interested in you having genuine followers those who interact with your posts
